PRESIDENT'S CORNER

President Lisa Stueve's Welcome Message

Rotary International is an organization of business and professional leaders united worldwide who provide humanitarian service, encourage high ethical standards in all vocations, and help build goodwill and peace in the world.

The Rotary Club of Sandy Springs meets most Mondays at the Hilton Atlanta Perimeter Suites at 12:15 PM. The lunch program includes club business and also hosts guest speakers - business professionals, elected officials, non-profit leaders and others from the Sandy Springs area.

We're always looking for ways to make an impact in the community; our club members are actively engaged with senior and youth programs that support leadership development and student scholarship. While our motto and most important feature of Rotary International is "Service Above Self," we also work together in fellowship as we enjoy great camaraderie. Like us on Facebook Sandy Springs' Facebook Page to keep up to date on our club's activities!

I hope you will enjoy our weekly newsletter and I invite you to join us for lunch soon!

Lisa Stueve, President, Rotary Club of Sandy Springs, 2016-17

Casino Royale! Recap

Casino Royale On March 11th

Rotary Club of Sandy Springs members and guest rolled the dice and played cards during the annual Casino Royale Gala on March 11, 2017 at the Dunwoody Country Club. Food tastings, drinks, casino games, a silent auction, music and the raffle were all part of the evening that took a special time to recognize the Public Service employees of the City of Sandy Springs Fire, EMC and Police Departments. LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

March 6, 2017 - Jeffrey Stepakoff - Executive Director, Georgia Film Academy

On Monday, March 6, 2017, Jeffrey Stepakoff spoke to the Rotary Club of Sandy Springs about the Georgia Film Industry and the amazing Georgia Film Academy.

Jeffrey Stepakoff was raised in Atlanta, Georgia. He is an accomplished writer-producer and an experienced academic, with a twenty-eight year entertainment industry career that includes sweeping internationally-recognized credits, leadership roles in content creation and production management, and a track record of collaboration, innovation, and success in virtually all forms of commercial media.

After earning a BA from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, School of Journalism and Mass Communication, and then completing his Master of Fine Arts in Playwriting at Carnegie Mellon University, School of Drama, Stepakoff moved to Hollywood and began writing and producing film, television and digital entertainment.

He has "written by" or "story by" credits on thirty-seven television episodes, has written for fifteen different series, and has been a writer and/or writer-producer on eight primetime or first-run cable staffs, credited on more than two hundred episodes of popular television. The TV credits for which he is most known include the Emmy-winning The Wonder Years, Sisters, Wild Card, Hyperion Bay, The Magic School, C16:FBI, Robin's Hoods, Land's End, Flipper, Sons & Daughters, Major Dad, The Yakov Smirnoff Show, Beauty & the Beast, Have Faith, Simon & Simon, and break-out hit Dawson's Creek, where he was Co-Executive Producer. Until July 2015, he worked as the Co-Executive Producer of Chasing Life for ABC Family.

Stepakoff has also created and developed pilots for many of the major studios and networks, including 20th Century, Paramount, MTM, Fox and ABC, and a variety of production companies and producers, such as Alloy Entertainment (Gossip Girl, The Vampire Diaries), Michael Pillar (Star Trek: Voyager, Deep Space Nine), and David Milch (Deadwood, NYPD Blue).

He has also developed and written major motion pictures, including Disney's Brother Bear, Tarzan, for which Phil Collin's won an Academy Award, and EM Entertainment's Lapitch, Croatia's selection for the 1998 Academy Awards.

Stepakoff has worked for numerous entertainment companies in the research and digital arts space, such as SimEx-Iwerks Entertainment, HarperCollins Interactive, Citicorp Transactional Technology, Digital Pictures, Inscope (HBO/Time Warner), and Universal Studios. He wrote the popular videogames Quarterback Attack with Mike Ditka. Creating a new storytelling model as one of the first "webisodic" shows, and the initial original content project for the digital media division of Paramount Studios, he developed and wrote Perspectives, an interactive drama series for the internet.

There are over a million copies of Stepakoff's novels in print in twenty languages, as well.

A poster for Rotary International's Water and Sanitation Month. On the left, the text "MARCH IS" is written vertically in large blue letters. The main image shows a young child crouching by a body of water, holding a plastic bottle. In the top right corner is the Rotary International logo. Overlaid on the image is the text "WATER AND SANITATION MONTH" in large yellow and white letters. Below this is a quote: "Clean water, the essence of life and a birthright for everyone, must become available to all people now." attributed to Jean-Michel Cousteau. At the bottom, there is the Rotary logo, a water drop icon, and the website "www.rotary.org".
