This Week's Speaker

Sherry Boston, DeKalb County District Attorney

Join us this Friday, September 12 at Maggiano's to welcome Sherry Boston, DeKalb County District Attorney. She stands among the elite in the world of prosecution as one of the rare 1% of African American females currently serving as district attorney nationwide. Ms. Boston was first elected as the district attorney for DeKalb County in 2016. In her capacity, DA Boston oversees the prosecution of felony offenses filed in the Superior Court of DeKalb County and supervises a staff of more than 300 people including attorneys, investigators, paralegals, victim advocates, and administrative professionals." Whiskey Raffle Update

Gathering Week #2: Check Out Dunwoody Beverage and Bottle Registry for Ideas!

We are now in the second week of gathering bottles of whiskey and other collectible spirits for the raffle. It is very important that we reach our prize pool goal in order to market and sell tickets in October and November!

We have a bottle registry!

We've made a partnership deal with our local Dunwoody Beverage liquor store! They have a registered list of whiskeys at their shop. You'll be able to go to Dunwoody Beverage, ask to see the list, and pick from what's still left just like you would for a youth's wedding! Save the receipt and the donation is fully tax deductible. Even better, for every bottle purchase, Dunwoody Beverage will donate 10% back to the club. It's a great way to support our fundraiser, especially if you're (rightfully) intimidated by the thought of sifting through dozens and dozens of whiskey labels with opaque labels and marketing jargon. Take a look at items on the registry ... [more]

Know Anyone?

Anchor Place Respite Searching for Part-Time Activities Coordinator

St. Patrick's is seeking a part-time Activities Coordinator for Anchor Place Respite and would like our assistance in getting the word out/identifying possible candidates. You can view the position description at Lay Staff Openings - Episcopal Diocese of Atlanta and direct anyone you might know to that site for more information about the position and how to apply.

Have Any Great Speakers in Mind?

Meghan Berry and Kathy Brandt would LOVE to know about them, and we've created an easy way to do that. Just use this link - <https://forms.gle/4HtWfKogX93wjPhu5> - to nominate speakers, let us know why they may be a good fit to present, and suggest topics this speaker could present. - to nominate speakers, let us know why they may be a good fit to present, and suggest topics this speaker could present.

Save the Date: Oktoberfest

A green-themed poster for 'Save the Date: Oktoberfest'. The top left features the text 'SAVE THE DATE' in large, bold, green letters. In the top right corner is a logo for 'DUNWOODY OKTOBERFEST' featuring a yellow trumpet, a beer mug, and a pretzel. The central text, in white, reads 'SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 27' and '12:00 - 6:00 PM'. Below this is the phrase 'Let's enjoy another year!' followed by a list of activities: 'Family Games & Crafts', 'Biergarten & Bier Hall', 'Authentic Foods', 'Local Vendors', and 'Live Music'. A large green triangle on the left side of the poster contains a photograph of three children playing with a purple ball outdoors. The triangle's border is decorated with small white icons of beer mugs, pretzels, and musical instruments.

After an incredibly successful debut, St. Patrick's Dunwoody Oktoberfest is back for its second year, bringing festive flair and meaningful impact to the heart of the city. Hosted at St. Patrick's Episcopal Church at 4755 North Peachtree Road, directly across from Brook Run Park, this beloved fall event will be held on Saturday, September 27, 2025, from 12:00 PM to 6:00 PM.

Once again, this free-to-attend, family-friendly festival will combine the fun of a traditional Oktoberfest celebration with the purpose of supporting St. Patrick's community ministries, including Malachi's Storehouse and Anchor Place Respite Dunwoody.

Enjoy authentic German cuisine, including bratwurst, roasted chicken, and soft pretzels, a lively beer hall and biergarten experience, live polka music and local entertainment, a dedicated KinderZone filled with carnival games, crafts, playground time, and prizes, a variety of local vendors with shopping and giveaways, and of course, our signature keepsake beer steins.
