Service Opportunity

Join in the Great Dunwoody Cleanup - This Saturday, November 14

As Rotarians, Service Above Self isn't just our motto—it's a call to action that we live out every single day in our community. Whether we are supporting local initiatives, investing in youth, or partnering on civic projects, we know that a strong community is built through hands-on involvement.

We have a fantastic new opportunity to show our pride and keep Dunwoody shining. The City of Dunwoody has officially put out the call for community members, neighborhoods, and local groups to take part in the upcoming #GreatDunwoodyCleanup.

SMILE!

Each week, Bob O'Brien buzzes around the room taking photos during the Rotary meeting to capture all the energy and highlight our active members. Once the photos are snapped, Mark Galvin pairs them with the meeting recap so our club's updates can be published to Facebook and LinkedIn that morning.

To help our club put its best foot forward online, Bob is fine-tuning his approach to focus on more composed, intentional photos. His goal is to make sure everyone looks their absolute best—avoiding awkward mid-bite shots, blinks, or members caught looking down
